

At the 'Ville.

Dr. F. H. Davis was in New York city last week, where he went to consult an oculist. His friends are all glad to learn that all the authorities tell him there is no serious trouble with the eye. On his way home he called on Dr. W. C. Tillotson of Rockville, Conn., a former resident here.

The open-air band concerts began last Wednesday evening with the usual fine program. The Sons of Veterans began their series of summer dances the same evening, and a burlesque play, "Reuben in New York," was given in Music Hall.

Union Memorial services of all the churches were held Sunday morning in Music Hall, Rev. J. W. Burgin of Lyndon Center delivering the sermon.

Today is a busy day for the graded school. At 9 o'clock on the school grounds there will be a flag-raising and their beautiful new flag will be unfurled to the breeze with appropriate exercises. At 10 o'clock the kindergarten class have a May festival and May pole dance, which will be very attractive. This afternoon at 2 o'clock in Music Hall the schools have their pre-Memorial exercises, consisting of speaking and music.

The Memorial day procession will start from Music Hall at 9 o'clock Thursday morning and march to the Center, where the usual exercises will be carried out and the graves decorated. On their return the address of the day will be delivered at the hall by Rev. I. W. McLaughlin.

Mrs. M. J. Robinson was in Springfield, Mass., a few days last week.

The Memorial day concert this year is to be given by the Glee Club of Dartmouth College, consisting of a male quartet, mandolin, guitar and a reader. They come highly recommended and should draw a good house.

Miss Hattie Carpenter, who now makes her home with her brother in New Jersey, has come to Vermont to spend the summer with relatives.

Lewis Mennt has finished work as village electrician and will move his family to St. Johnsbury Center this week. His place is taken by Bert Drown of Barton.

Miss Agnes Douglas, housekeeper at Charles Norris' has gone to her home in Windsor Mills, P. Q., for a month's vacation.

The Mothers' Club held a very pleasant meeting with Mrs. Charles Norris Thursday evening. The speaker was Miss Annie Maxwell, who gave a most helpful and interesting talk on "The Kindergarten and the Home." Miss Maxwell's school closes Friday and after a brief vacation she will spend July and August in special study at Cornell University. In the fall she will teach in a private kindergarten near Philadelphia. She has been much liked during her year's work here and it is a matter of regret that she is not to continue her kindergarten here another year.

Ernest Chase moves soon into the tenement in the Harvey house on Williams street vacated by Lucius Gordon.

Fred Sawyer is now painting for A. P. Sleeper.

Those Delicious Lemon Pies

I Invite Every Man, Woman and Child Here

Every Person of St. Johnsbury to Eat With Me Tomorrow at My Expense.

This is an invitation that you simply cannot afford to ignore. I'll tell you why.

I'm going to feed you on a food that helps digest all other foods, a food that "stops the sharp pangs of dyspepsia in two minutes by the watch," so swears Mr. Henry Gray and many, many others.

A food that made Assistant Postmaster Bates "feel like a two-year-old in a clover pasture."

A food that makes brains in five hours and blood in four.

A highly nutritious, stomachic food, made from the pineapple, and the paw paw melon, figs, oranges, celery and a few other good things for the nerves, stomach and bowels.

You may be starving your blood and brain in the midst of plenty. It isn't how much you eat that counts, but it's how you digest the food you eat.

You can't get steam out of water without fire, you can't get brain power, nerve force and blood corpuscles out of food without digestion.

Thousands lack sufficient vital force and don't know why.

They think they need a tonic, a vacation or a change of scenery. But they don't. It's old indigestion that's the matter with them, and six days' use of my Biscuit will prove it.

They don't get the strength out of their food. It's like running corn through a mill with the rollers too wide apart; the corn goes through, but the mill doesn't grind.

Don't think you must have a pain to have indigestion.

Lack of flesh, too much fat, pimples, blotches, sallow complexion, lack of nerve force, impoverished blood, insomnia, headaches, weak brain power, may all be due to a faulty digestive process either in the stomach or bowels.

Eat my Biscuit along with your other food for a week and find out how your digestive organs are working. If the Biscuit helps you greatly, gives you more force, strength and brain power, you may set it down that your stomach, liver and bowels were doing their duty.

Only yesterday your head may have felt dull and heavy; you had the "blues"; were cross, nervous or irritable; everything seemed to go wrong, and you couldn't tell why.

It's ten to one it was old dyspepsia slyly getting in his work, not enough to cause you pain, but just enough to dull your brain, rob you of your vitality, upset your liver and deplete your nerve force. Maybe you don't think so, but just try one package of my Biscuit and see if they don't change "blues" to a bright, cheery red; make the old world laugh in a merry glee and put vigor and vim in your life again.

National Bank President Kinner of Olean, N. Y., had stomach trouble so bad that he had to live on malted milk and even that caused him pain—he ate three biscuits and went to eating his meals—sounds like a miracle. Well, I have Mr. Kinner's own letter to that effect.

W. G. Roach of Hornell, N. Y., says he hadn't been able to work for several years—had dyspepsia so bad—after eating my Biscuit two weeks he got a position and went to work; says he can eat anything now and feels "tiptop." This is only two of hundreds.

Mr. Dyspeptic, have you ever heard of the wonderful Biscuit that talks, that really tells you itself what it can do—that's Neaf's. Five minutes after you eat it the Biscuit begins to unfold its virtues and it will by actual demonstration prove to you more in regard to its merits in ten minutes than I could probably make you believe if I wrote and read you ten books as large as the dictionary.

"It seems like a dream," swears Mr. Charles F. Bowman. "Gave me relief in three minutes," says Mrs. W. H. Crutenden. "Stopped my pain in two minutes," swears Mr. Joseph Fentiman. You may know some of these people, or know somebody who knows them. I'll send you their pictures and full addresses if you want them, so that you can find all about my Biscuit and the wonders it has wrought.

Probably you are now thinking whether all this can be true—stop it! Get up and go to W. B. Eastman's store and get some of my Biscuit at once and let them prove what I say.

W. B. Eastman is your own fellow-townsmen. He will give you his own positive guarantee that if my Biscuit doesn't reach your case, back your money goes and no questions asked. Or if you wish I will send you absolutely free one large 25c package of my Dyspepsia Biscuit; if you will send me 4 cents to pay actual cost of postage. Cut out and use coupon below.

COME EAT WITH ME

At My Expense.
